Usage Guidelines for the Henleyfield Community Center Facility

1. Permitted Uses

The Community Center facilities may be used for social functions, community meetings, civic organization meetings, charitable functions and other similar activities.

2. Reservations

The Community Center facilities may be reserved for the periodic and/or temporary use of the residents and groups in the Henleyfield community or others who have specific events that are approved by HCI. Reservations may be made by non-residents, but they must be sponsored by a resident of Henleyfield. Reservations may be made by phone with the Board, Executive Committee or designated individuals. A User's Agreement must be signed and any fees paid before facilities are reserved. Reservations may be made up to 6 months in advance. Contact information is available on the Henleyfield.com website.

3. Time Limits

The Community Center facilities may be scheduled as follows unless special arrangements have been made through the Board or Executive Committee:

Daily: 9am until dark

Please note – the Community Center must be cleaned and locked and the premises vacated by the above closing times.

4. Appropriate Use

Each group shall have the use of the Community Center facilities as long as they conduct their activities in a lawful manner both inside and outside the building, so as to not interfere with neighboring property owners. Use of alcohol is specifically prohibited by law anywhere on the premises. The Community Center shall have the right to revoke all privileges if warranted by complaints of excessive noise or other valid complaints.

Complaints against any user of the Community Center, or violation of any County ordinance(s), shall be grounds for forfeiture of privileges.

5. Locking the Facility

The doors will be opened prior to the event by a member of the Board. The user is responsible for locking all doors before leaving.

6. Posting of Notices

Devices for posting of notices, etc. shall only be used upon the express consent of the Board for any program to be held in the building.

7. Parking

Parking for the use of the Community Center shall be confined to the parking lot and grassy area immediately in front and to the left of the Community Center building entrance. No parking is permitted in the Pinetucky Church parking lot north of the Center without prior written approval of the Church.

8. Cleaning

- After using the Community Center, it must be cleaned and restored to the same condition found by the user. The person or group making the reservation shall be liable for any cost of cleanup or repair. Failure to return the Community Center to its original condition will result in forfeiture of future use of the facility in addition to any costs for cleanup or repair.
- Tables and chairs must be put away.
- Floors must be swept and/or mopped.
- Bathrooms shall be left clean.
- The kitchen will be left in its original condition; counters wiped, sink cleaned, dishes washed.
- Garbage and trash must be securely bagged and removed from the premises by the user.
- The air conditioner/heater must be set to the designated temperature.
- All lights shall be turned off.
- All doors must be securely locked.

9. General rules and regulations

- No smoking is permitted inside the building.
- No alcohol is permitted anywhere on the facility.
- No grilling is permitted under the pavilion.
- No fires may be lit on the premises, with the exception of cooking on the on-site camp grills or an appropriate barbecue grill furnished by the user.
- Users of the pavilion must leave it in the same condition as it was found; swept, with picnic tables or other furnishings returned to their original locations.

Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in forfeiting future use of the facility.

10. Fees

The Community Center facilities are maintained by both Pearl River County and the HENLEYFIELD.COMmunity, Inc., which is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation. Beginning July 1, 2024, the following fee schedule will be utilized for all private reservations made for use of the Community Center.

Use of Facility – HCI Member/Henleyfield Resident	$25.00
Use of Facility – Non-HCI Member/Henleyfield Resident	$75.00
Waterslides –	$35.00
Fun Jumps –	$35.00

Facility is not reserved until fees are paid.
